

9. TRADE

Std 9th

Sub – Geography

Q 1. Classify the trade taking place between following regions :

(A) Maharashtra and Punjab

Ans. Domestic Trade

(B) India and Japan

Ans. International trade

(C) Lasalgaon and Pune

Ans. Domestic Trade

(D) China and Canada

Ans. International trade

(E) India and European Union

Ans. International trade

Q 2. Write the correct word- Import or Export- for the following :

(A) India buys crude oil from the Middle-East Asian countries.

Import

(B) Wheat is sent to Asian countries from Canada. Export

(C) Japan sends machine parts to APEC countries. Export

Q 3. Correct and rewrite the wrong statements :

(A) India is a self-sufficient country. Wrong

Statement:- India is not a self-sufficient country

(B) The place where there is excess production does not have demand for those products. Wrong

Statement:- The place where there is excess production does supply goods to other places.

(C) International trade processes are easier than local trade. Wrong

Statement:- International trade processes are relatively difficult than local trade.

(D) SAARC works towards economic development and enhancing the social and cultural harmony of the South- East Asian countries. Correct

Q 4. Identify and write the type of trade:

(A) Srushti brought sugar from the grocery shop.

Ans. Retail trade

(B) The traders from Surat bought cotton from the farmers of Maharashtra.

Ans. Wholesale trade

(C) Sameer has exported pomegranates from his farms to Australia.

Ans. International trade

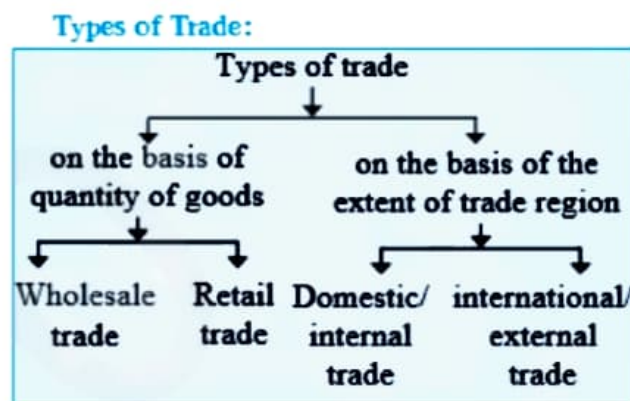

(D) Sadabhau bought 10 sacks of wheat and 5 sacks of rice from Market Yard for selling in his own shop.

Ans. Wholesale trade

Q 5. Write answers in short:

(A) Create a flowchart showing the types of trade

Ans.

(B) Explain the difference in types of balances of trade.

Ans. The difference between the import and export values of a country in a specific period is called balance of trade. Following are the types of balance of trade:

(i) When the value of imports is more than the value of exports, it is called 'unfavourable balance of trade.'

- (ii) When the value of exports is more than the value of imports, it is called 'favourable balance of trade'.
- (iii) When the value of exports and imports is almost the same, it is called 'balanced balance of trade'.

(C) State the objectives of WTO.

Ans. (i) To provide platform for negotiations in international trade.

(ii) To handle the differences related to trade

(iii) Monitor the trade policies of member states

(iv) Providing technological assistance and training to developing countries

(D) What is the difference between the OPEC and APEC in terms of their functions?

Ans. Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC):

(i) Controlling the international trade of crude oil

(ii) Controlling the rates of crude oil production among member states

(iii) Maintaining consensus in oil export South

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC):

(i) Free trade and economic cooperation in Asia-Pacific Ocean region

(ii) Promoting regional and technical cooperation among members

(E) Write the functions of the important trade organisations in Asia.

Ans. South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC):

(i) Finding satisfactory solutions to the common problems faced by countries in South Asia.

(ii) Increasing social welfare, raising the living standard and increasing regional cooperation among member states

(ii) To remove unrest in South Asia

Association of South-East Asian nations (ASEAN):

- (i) Expanding social and cultural harmony along with economic growth in SE Asia
- (ii) Promoting regional peace
- (iii) Promoting tax waivers for trade growth in member states

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC):

- (i) Free trade and economic cooperation in Asia-Pacific Ocean region
- (ii) Promoting regional and technical cooperation among members

(F) What is the importance of marketing from farmers 'point of view'?

Ans. (i) In the traditional marketing, the farmers used to sell their products in the local market at whatever price available.

(ii) Since the fruits and vegetables are perishable goods, the farmers used to incur losses.

(iii) However, the progressive farmers have acquired skills in marketing.

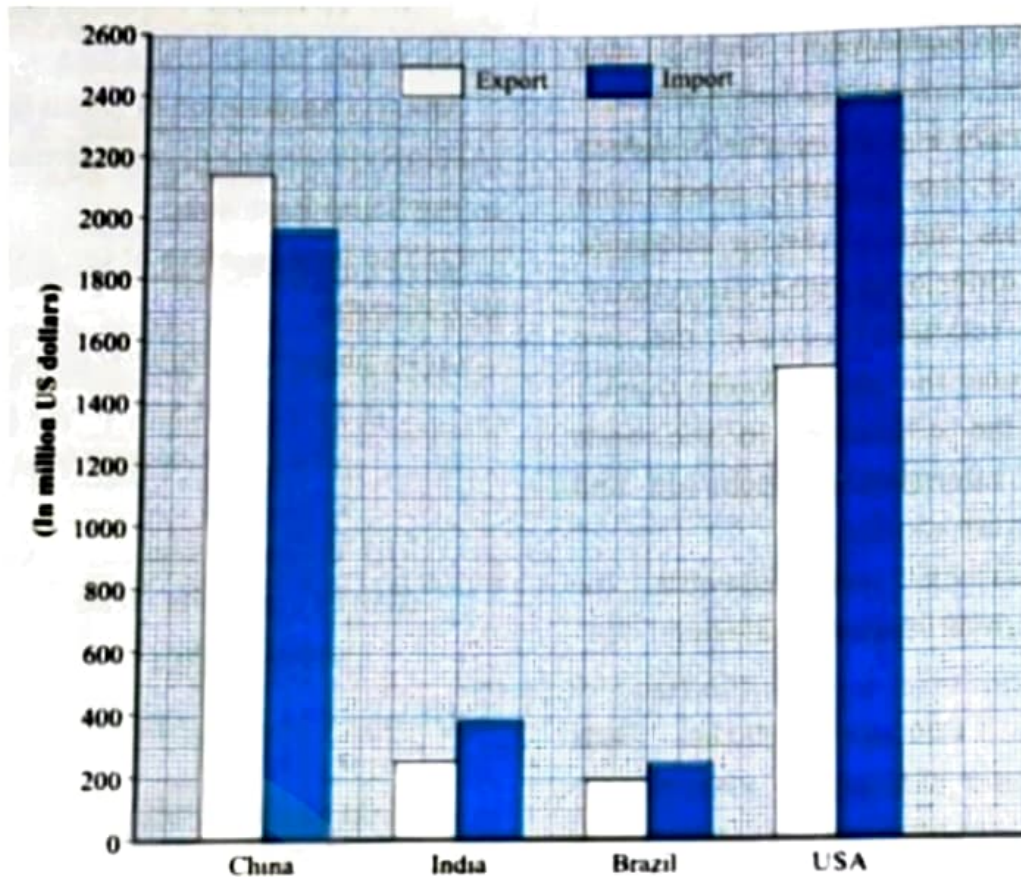

(iv) They are aware of the trends in market. They produce food grains and the fruits as per the international standards.

(v) Now, they undertake the grading and packaging of their products.

(vi) The presentation of any products has become indispensable now.

Q 6. In the following table, export-import of some countries in the year 2014-15 is given in million U.S. dollars. Make a compound bar graph of the given statistical information. Read the bar diagram carefully and comment upon the balance of payments of the respective countries.

Ans.

Country	Export	Import	Difference	Traders Magnitude
China	2143	1960	+ 183	4103
India	272	380	- 108	652
Brazil	190	241	- 051	431
USA	1510	2380	- 870	3890

Observations:

- (1) China has favourable balance of trade.
- (2) India, Brazil and the USA have unfavourable balance of trade.

- (3) The volume of international trade of China and the USA is maximum.
- (4) International trade of India and Brazil is insignificant.
- (5) International trade is dominated by China and the USA.