

Chapter 7: Nutrition and Diet

Textbook Exercise Solutions & Answers

1. Fill in the blanks:

(a) The process of intake of food and utilizing it for all life processes is called nutrition

(b) All the substances in our food which are useful for various body processes are called nutrients

(c) Carbohydrates and provide to our body.

fats, energy

(d) In a balanced diet, all the nutrients are present in the proportion.

right

(e) In the food pyramid, cereals are given the maximum space because they fulfill our requirement.

energy

(f) Intake of more food than necessary causes

overnutrition

2. Spot the following in the table of vitamins and minerals.

(a) The nutrient present in citrous fruits.

Vitamin C

(b) Vitamins/minerals present in milk.

Vitamin A, Vitamin B, Vitamin D, calcium, phosphorus.

(c) Causes and symptoms of night blindness, scurvy, rickets, beriberi.

Diseases	Causes	Symptoms
1. Night blindness	Deficiency of Vitamin A	Inability to see in dim light
2. Scurvy	Deficiency of Vitamin C	Bleeding of gums
3. Rickets	Deficiency of Vitamin D	Softening of bones
4. Beri-beri	Deficiency of Vitamin B ₁	Nerve disorder, muscle weakness

(d) Foods required to prevent the above diseases.

Diseases	*Causes	'Symptoms	Food for prevention
1. Night blindness	Deficiency of Vitamin A	Inability to see in dim light	Carrots, milk, dark green vegetables.
2. Scurvy	Deficiency of Vitamin C	Bleeding of gums	Amla, kiwi, oranges and citrus fruits.
3. Rickets	Deficiency of Vitamin D	Softening of bones	Exposure to sunlight, milk, fish, egg, butter.
4. Beri-beri	Deficiency of Vitamin B ₁	Nerve disorder, muscle weakness	Milk, fish, meat, cereals, nuts, pulses

(e) Causes of anaemia.

Deficiency of Vitamin B₁₂, iron.

(f) Essential mineral for healthy bones and teeth.

Calcium, phosphorus.

(g) Sensory organ affected due to the deficiency of Vitamin A.

Eyes, skin.

3. Choose the correct alternative.

(a) Pulses are a very good source of (1) carbohydrates (2) proteins (3) fats (4) minerals

(2) proteins

(b) provide maximum energy to our body. (1) Cereals (2) Leafy Vegetables (3) Water (4) Amla

(1) Cereals

(c) Goitre is caused by the deficiency of (1) iron (2) calcium (3) iodine (4) potassium

(3) iodine

(d) is a type of junk food. (1) Orange (2) Milk (3) Bhakri (4) Chocolate

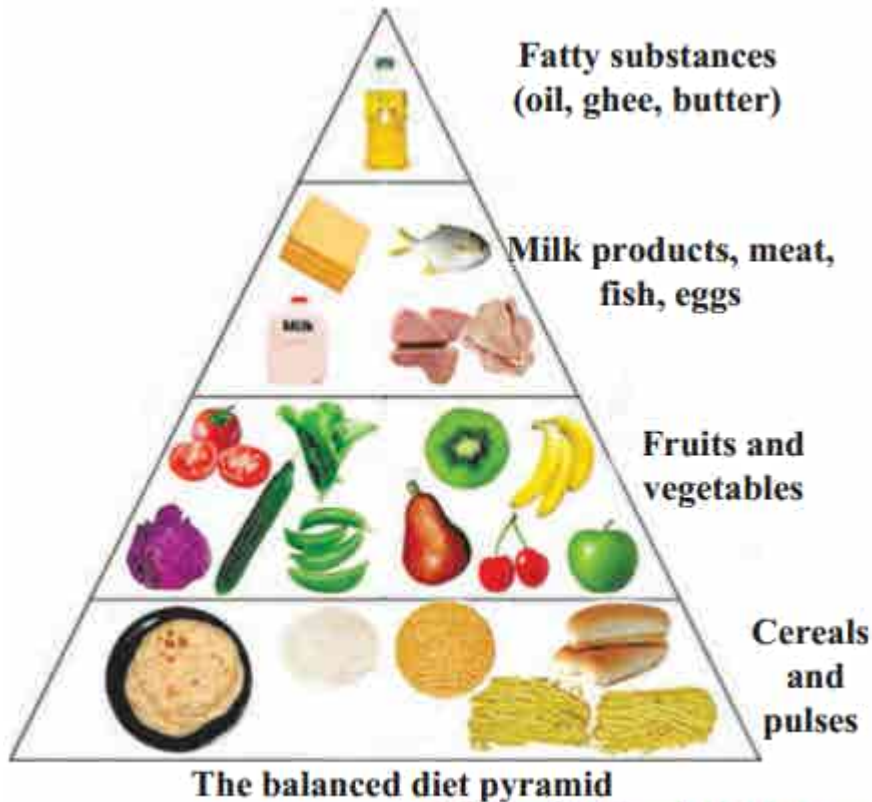

(4) Chocolate

4. Use the food pyramid to select food items of your choice for three days.

Conditions:

1. The diet for all three days should be balanced.
2. There should be variety in the items chosen for the three days.

Answer:

Day 1:

Cereal like cornflakes and milk, apple, roti, sabzi and dal.

Day 2:

Bread and butter with milk, rice/ roti and chicken, curd, any one type of fruit, salad.

Day 3:

Poha, green vegetable and dal with rice or roti, raita, one fruit, vegetable sandwich.